

Community-Based Research Canada Recherche partenariale du Canada

C2UExpo is more than a conference. It's a national movement bridging community and university scholars. C2UExpo (Community-Campus-Exposition) provides leadership and space to showcase community-campus partnerships addressing critical issues faced by local and global communities. The organizing of C2UExpo takes direction, commitment, and effort from local groups.

Bringing Global Perspectives to Local Action

Connecting for Change

Office for Community-Based Research at the University of Victoria and the United Way of Greater Victoria (600 attendees)

Partnerships, Policy and Progress

University of Saskatchewan & Community of Saskatoon 350 attendees

Leaders in Urban Change

University of Winnipeg & Winnipeg Inter-City Research Alliance 300 attendees

C2UExpo: a 20-year journey

201

Community-Based Research 550 attendees

2013

Engaging Shared Worlds

2021

CBRCanada

City of Corner Brook, Grenfell Campus Memorial University of Newfoundland, and the provincial office of Public Engagement 400 attendees

Citizen Solutions, Better World

2015

Carleton University & several community partners 400 attendees

Simon Fraser University & community partners 600 attendees

2022

Celebrating Community-Based Research Excellence

CBRCanada Secretariat online 160 attendees

Celebrating Community-Based Research Excellence

Secretariat online 100 attendees

Connected Communities. Collective Change.

Lakehead University & several community partners 300 attendees